

Let's be loud and proud about Headwaters Music & Arts!

We want our community to know about the great things happening here at Headwaters Music & Arts, and we need your help. We invite adults - or children accompanied by an adult - to help out at one or more of the upcoming events. All materials provided. With prior notice, we may be able to set up a keyboard if you'd like to play piano at one of these events. Thanks very much! Tricia (444-5606)

Arts Expo

10 am-4 pm Saturday, April 6 | Northwest Indian Community Dev. Center
1819 Bemidji Ave N

An arts resource fair and arts showcase for artists, community members, and craftspeople. Adults or families needed to sit at information table and greet those who stop by. Bring an instrument or art activity if you'd like.

Arts of the Earth Festival "Celebrate Art, Honor Mother Earth, and Inspire Community".
Saturday, April 27 and Sunday, April 28, 10am to 4pm | Hobson Memorial Union, BSU.

There will be dozens of talented vendors, live music, workshops, poetry, documentaries, children's activities, inspiring art displays, a farmer's market, and dancing. Volunteers needed to staff an information table and do a simple art project with those who stop by the table.

Music students are welcome to bring an instrument and share their talents while at the festival.

Monroe Crossing Concert

7 pm Saturday, May 4 | Historic Chief Theater

We are seeking musicians, singers and small groups to share your talents by playing either in the lobby or out on the sidewalk to entertain folks as they wait for the doors to open. We also welcome adults able to come early to help set up, serve as ushers, and help with clean up. For those who would like to attend the concert itself, tickets are $25. This event is a fundraiser for Headwaters – unfortunately we cannot offer free admission.
